Few evaluations test compounds absent from the reference 19 of 86 eligible studies (22%) tested any compound absent from the reference library or training data